Dear Eric,

Thanks so much for the information about the University of Michigan auction. With a bit of luck I'll own the Albany items.

I was certain that I'd responded to your April 28 letter concerning the Smythe auction, but just discovered a note I'd written to you -- Somehow it managed to find its way to the bottom of the pile on my desk, and was never mailed. My apologies.

Yes, I neglected to add the 10% buyer's fee.

I hope to see you in Baltimore. I'll be at table 619.

Best wishes,

Bill

Dear Mr. Ball:

I was deeply disappointed in not being able to acquire Lot # 5248 in the mail portion of the April 8, 1993 auction. You told me that you had a person who would take care of me. I submitted a bid several times your estimate with written instructions to increase it if necessary as I wrote that I really wanted the item. Please look at my bid sheet. The item sold for a trifle more than my basic bid.

Is there a possibility of getting this item for me as a mistake was made somewhere ? Could someone have known my bid ?

Please do what you can for me.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Bill:

I feel, as you do, that at least some of our bids in the mail portion were disclosed in detail rather than a single over or under reply. The winning bid was just too close. I agree with you that the owner might have been bidding. I am sorry you did not fare better but I appreciate your full cooperation in my effort to buy a few things.

You were very kind to me in billing me for my three lots. My total was $720 and you did not charge me for the 10% buyer's fee. Was that waived or is that due you? Please let me know. I also want to send you a buyer's fee and it will probably be a coin or a note.

Thank you again for your accommodation. I may try again but probably not a Smythe auction.

My best to Mr. Albany.

Sincerely,

Dear Bill:

Duplicates and unwanted items in the University of Michigan Library are for sale at auction. They assured me no bids would be revealed.

When I saw a group of Albany items I thought you might like them. Early Almanacs and city directories are most interesting. If you get Lot 9 I'd like one from New York City.

I enclose the appropriate pages.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman
